Roger Creager to Perform at Constellation Field

Skeeters Release Inaugural Promotional Schedule

Sugar Land, TEXAS – The Sugar Land Skeeters announced today that Roger Creager will perform at the “Best in Texas” pregame concert July 6 along with the rest of their 2012 promotional schedule including some of the most unique promotional events in the Houston area.

“The beauty of Minor League Baseball is you get to be creative,” said Tom Gorman, Executive Producer of the Sugar Land Skeeters. “We try to have acts that are not only entertaining but also what you wouldn’t traditionally see at other sport venues. We will not only have a great local artist in Roger Creager, but also Cowboy Monkeys, a Man who lights himself on fire and more.”

Music will play a large part of the entertainment during the Skeeters Inaugural Season with several game concerts. Country artist Roger Creager comes to Sugar Land on July 6. Fans will enjoy the sounds of Texas Country during the Bud Light “Best in Texas” pregame concert and Texas A&M Alumni Night. The first ever “Battle of the Bands” presented by Bud Light will be August 2. Sign your band up to take part of the in-game competition at Constellation Field. Between every inning, local bands will compete for your praise and the grand prize.

The obscure appearances start on May 14 as the Cowboy Monkeys come riding into Texas during “Ag Night” at Constellation Field. This wildly entertaining act as seen on ESPN and the Late Night Show with David Letterman features monkeys playing rodeo. The Bases are sure to be smoking August 25 as Stuntman and Guinness World Record Holder Ted “The Fireball” Batchelor LIGHTS HIMSELF ON FIRE after the game and does a complete trip around the bases.

Join the Skeeters on June 25 as the Zooperstars come to town. One of minor leagues baseballs signature acts who earned national acclaim on America’s Got Talent, The Zooperstars. The Skeeters will be proud to host one of the hottest acts in minor league baseball, the break dancing batboy, Breakin BBoy McCoy on August 10.

The Skeeters have 16 giveaways planned for the season. May 12 will mark Swatson, the team mascot, receiving one of baseball’s biggest honors as he will be forever remembered in the form of a bobble head.
